Relaxing start into the easter holidays: LuxxLounge offers family special

Starting on March 15th, LuxxLounge at Frankfurt Airport offers a family special during the easter holidays 2013. Two adults and up to two children can access the lounge and utilize the benefits of LuxxLounge for only 55 euro incl. VAT. This family special applies to families, travelling with children up to 14 years.

LuxxLounge is a 500 sqm lounge facility at Frankfurt International Airport (FRA), which can be used for meetings and layovers between 6 a.m. and 9:30 p.m., regardless of airline or booking class and even without a booked journey.

LuxxLounge can be found at the gallery level between halls B and C at Terminal 1. It is located before the security checkpoints and offers a wide range of services, such as alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, complimentary snacks, free WIFI, international newspapers and television, as well as fully equipped, large bathroom facilities including showers. Entrance fee is 30 euro incl. VAT per person.

Also a conference room - offering space and working facilities for up to 6 persons - can be booked for 35 euro excl. VAT. Besides that, LuxxLounge offers a separate group lounge for up to 40 persons. Special group rates on request.
